

Objectives

The aims of the course are:

- Reflect on the role of emotions in the learning process from the point of view of students and teachers.
- Create a positive environment in the classroom where students feel safe and can enhance their identity.
- Know how to manage individual affective factors, such as motivation, anxiety, and self-esteem.

Target group

The training course is addressed to teachers of foreign or additional languages. The course is recommended for primary and secondary school teachers, university teachers and even teachers of language schools or private classes.

Language of course

This course will be provided in English.

Methodology

The approach used is highly practical and based on the previous professional experiences that trainer has been accumulating in this field.

The course combines learning by doing methodologies with the transmission of contents and requires the active participation of the group in order to achieve the most satisfactory results.

It starts from some previous definitions to continue reflecting on the most relevant aspects of the course to finish with its practical application in the classroom.
