

TEAM STRENGTH: TEAMBUILDING, GROUPWORK & LEADERSHIP

Objectives

The objectives of this course are:

- Understand the components of strong teams and their DNA that allows them to work well together
- Debate and go deeper into the concept of leadership and what makes a good leader- replicate this back in your schools and home countries
- Engage in practical activities to stimulate the use of the theory we learn about teams- different group roles, personalities, and conflict
- Self-awareness and knowledge about yourself as a team member; your best strengths and understanding your limitations and those of others to increase empathy and understanding when conflict and difficulties in teams arise
- Have specific theory related to techniques to implement and replicate this back home with your teachers, students, and teams!!

Target Group

This training course is addressed to teachers in general, especially teachers that have felt frustration or lack of motivation when it comes to working in teams with their colleagues or creating teams amongst their students. The course is recommended for primary and secondary teachers, university teachers, VET teachers, private class teachers, as well as all educators who must work in teams and want to improve both their skills and the skills of their students working in teams as well. The most important component of this course is that the teachers are interested and excited to better themselves regarding leadership and teamwork!

Language of course

This course will be provided in English. The trainer has many years of experience working with students and teachers who do not speak English as their first language. The language level will be adapted according to the level of comfort of the participants. Emphasis will be placed on non-verbal communication as well through gestures, smiles, and movement.

Methodology

The approach used is highly practical and based on the previous professional experiences that the trainer has been accumulating in both the teaching and coaching fields. This course focuses on engaging the participants in an active way through practical implementation of techniques and planning. We will always have an educational component behind the concept of leadership and teamwork, but the focus will be placed on putting into practice what we are learning, so it can be replicated in your home country. This course requires the active participation and interest of the group members to achieve the most satisfactory results!! Throughout the week you will have small challenges' that will be fun and intriguing, to get you to work with other people and practice what you are learning. There will always be room for changing the organization of the days, based on the needs of the participants as they arise.
